

College of Education

Dr. Latoshia Ellis

Director of Clinical Experience, Assessment and Certification

EllisL@hssu.edu

(314) 340-5082

ECDC 229

Degree Doctorate Degree
Maryville University
Educational Leadership

Biography Dr. Ellis is an alumna of Harris- Stowe State University where she obtained her Bachelor of Science in Elementary with a minor in Psychology. Upon graduating from Harris-Stowe, Dr. Ellis went on to Lindenwood University where she obtained her Master's Degree in Education Administration. Ellis later obtained her Doctorate Degree in Educational Leadership from Maryville University.

Dr. Ellis previously worked as an Elementary School Teacher in the Ritenour School district where she lead a school wide STEM initiative as well as developed community partnerships for performing arts. Ellis then went on to become an Administrator in a single gender Independent High School in St. Louis. Dr. Ellis began her career at Harris-Stowe State University as an Adjunct Professor.

Courses Intro to Field Experience
Supervised Student Teaching
Abnormal Psychology
Adolescent Psychology
Psychology of the Exceptional Child

Publications Dissertation Topic: Examining the Relationship Between Teacher Evaluations and Student Achievement Across Student Demographics”

Presentations Presenter at 2018 International Conference on Education Honolulu Hawaii
"Celebrating The Greatness Within: Circle of Excellence Math and Science Academy for Boys"
Presenter at Midwest Education Technology Community Conference 2017 and 2018 "Digital Equity"

Awards 2017 Teacher of the Year Nominee

Certifications Elementary Education grades 1-6 career certification- 10-15-2014
Principal K-8-12/23/2014