“There is no easy way to create a world where men and women can live together, where each has his own job and house, where all children receive as much education as their minds can absorb. But if such a world is created in our lifetime, it will be done in the United States by Negroes and white people of good will. It will be accomplished by persons who have the courage to put an end to suffering by willingly suffering themselves rather than inflict suffering upon others. It will be done by rejecting the racism, materialism and violence that has characterized Western civilization and especially by working toward a world of brotherhood, cooperation and peace.”

State of Missouri
Official Proclamation
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
Statewide Celebration

December 21, 2018

Dear Friends:

Greetings from the Governor's Office!
I write this letter to welcome everyone to this year's official Kick-Off Program and Celebration of Dr. King's Birthday throughout the State of Missouri. I extend my congratulations, made on behalf of the over six million citizens of Missouri, to the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. State Celebration Commission for your admirable work to recognize Dr. King's legacy. For over three decades, you have led our state in paying tribute to the lifework and legacy of one of our country's finest leaders, the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Dr. King was a beacon of hope and inspiration during his life for many millions of people worldwide through his thoughtful wisdom, moving oratory, and courage in the face of physical danger. A half century after his tragic death, his spirit has continued to inspire countless people in working to promote peace, justice, and equality in their communities. May that inspiration live on for many future generations of Americans.

Thank you for what you have accomplished on behalf of our state. May God bless the memory of Dr. King and may God bless our great State of Missouri and these United States.

Sincerely,

Michael L. Parson
Governor

250,000 people marched in Washington, D.C. on August 28, 1963, coming by plane, bus, train, and on foot, and from every walk of life. It was the biggest peaceful demonstration for civil rights in history.

The National Celebration of the Birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

On August 27, 1984, following an act of the 98th Congress of the United States of America, President Ronald Reagan signed into law, legislation creating the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr Federal Holiday Commission.

As provided in the authorizing legislation, the purpose of the Commission was to encourage appropriate ceremonies and activities throughout the United States relating to the first legal observance of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday, January 15, 1986, and to provide advice and assistance to federal, state and local governments, as well as private organizations with respect to the observance.

Congress created the Commission in recognition of the historical importance of the first observation of our newest holiday and the need for an organized effort at the federal level to ensure that the first observance was a success.

In this spirit, the State Celebration Commission of Missouri wholeheartedly supports the federal Commission's efforts to successfully fulfill this Congressional mandate.

"I would challenge you today to see that his spirit never dies and that we will go forward from this experience, which to me represents the crucifixion – on toward the resurrection and redemption of his spirit.
We must carry on..."

“I Have A Dream”

Speech

by

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Delivered on the Lincoln Memorial Steps in Washington, D.C.
August 28, 1963

“Five score years ago, a great American, in whose symbolic shadow we stand, signed the Emancipation Proclamation. This momentous decree came as a great beacon light of hope to millions of Negro slaves who had been seared in the flames of withering injustice. It came as a joyous daybreak to end the long night of captivity. But one hundred years later, we must face the tragic fact that the Negro is still not free. One hundred years later, the life of the Negro is still sadly crippled by the manacles of segregation and the chains of discrimination.

One hundred years later, the Negro lives on a lonely island of poverty in the midst of a vast ocean of material prosperity. One hundred years later, the Negro is still languishing in the corners of American society and finds himself an exile in his own land. So we have come here today to dramatize an appalling condition.

In a sense, we have come to our nation's capitol to cash a check. When the architects of our republic wrote the magnificent words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to which every American was to fall heir. This note was a promise that all men would be guaranteed the inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

It is obvious today that America has defaulted on this promissory note insofar as her citizens of color are concerned. Instead of honoring this sacred obligation, America has given the Negro people a bad check, which has come back marked 'insufficient funds.' But we refuse to believe that the bank of justice is bankrupt. We refuse to believe that there are insufficient funds in the great vaults of opportunity of this nation. So we have come to cash this check – a check that will give us, upon demand, the riches of freedom and the security of justice. We have also come to this hallowed spot to remind America of the fierce urgency of now. This is no time to engage in the luxury of cooling off or to take the tranquilizing drug of gradualism. Now is the time to rise from the dark and desolate valley of segregation to the sunlit path of racial justice. Now is the time to open the doors of opportunity to all of God's children. Now is the time to lift our nation from the quicksands of racial injustice to the solid rock of brotherhood.

It would be fatal for the nation to overlook the urgency of the moment and to underestimate the determination of the Negro. This sweltering summer of the Negro's legitimate discontent will not pass until there is an invigorating autumn of freedom and equality. 1963 is not an end, but a beginning. Those who hope that the Negro needed to blow off steam and will now be content will have a rude awakening if the nation returns to business as usual. There will be neither rest nor tranquility in America until the Negro is granted his citizenship rights. The whirlwinds of revolt will continue to shake the foundations of our nation until the bright day of justice emerges.

But there is something that I must say to my people who stand on the warm threshold, which leads to the palace of justice. In the process of gaining our rightful place, we must not be guilty of wrongful deeds. Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred.

We must forever conduct our struggle on the high plane of dignity and discipline. We must not allow our creative protest to degenerate into physical violence. Again and again we must rise to the majestic heights of meeting physical force with soul force. The marvelous new militancy, which has engulfed the Negro community, must not lead us to distrust of all white people, for many of our white brothers, as evidenced by their presence here today, have come to realize that their destiny is tied up with our destiny and their freedom is inextricably bound to our freedom. We cannot walk alone.

And as we walk, we must make the pledge that we shall march ahead. We cannot turn back. There are those who are asking the devotees of civil rights, 'When will you be satisfied?' We can never be satisfied as long as our bodies, heavy with the fatigue of travel, cannot gain lodging in the motels of the highways and the hotels of the cities. We cannot be satisfied as long as the Negro's basic mobility is from a smaller ghetto to a larger one. We can never be satisfied as long as a Negro in Mississippi cannot vote and a Negro in New York believes he has nothing for which to vote. No, no, we are not satisfied, and we will not be satisfied until justice rolls down like waters and righteousness like a mighty stream.

I am not unmindful that some of you have come here out of great trials and tribulations. Some of you have come fresh from narrow cells. Some of you have come from areas where your quest for freedom left you battered by the storms of persecution and staggered by the winds of police brutality. You have been the veterans of creative suffering. Continue to work with the faith that unearned suffering is redemptive.

Go back to Mississippi, go back to Alabama, go back to Georgia, go back to Louisiana, go back to the slums and ghettos of our northern cities, knowing that somehow this situation can and will be changed. Let us not wallow in the valley of despair.

I say to you today, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.'

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at a table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a desert state, sweltering with the heat of injustice and oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day the state of Alabama, whose governor's lips are presently dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, will be transformed into a situation where all black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls and walk together as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith with which I return to the South. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with a new meaning, 'My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring.'

And if America is to be a great nation, this must come true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania! Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado! Let freedom ring from the curvaceous peaks of California!

But not only that; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia! Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee! Let freedom ring from every hill and every molehill of Mississippi. From every mountainside, let freedom ring.

When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, 'Free at last! Free at last! Thank God Almighty, we are free at last!'"

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The King Holiday

Mrs. Coretta Scott King

A day to reaffirm the American ideals of freedom, justice and opportunity for all.

A day to love, not hate; for understanding, not anger; for peace, not war.

A day for families to share together, to reach out to relatives and friends and to mend broken relationships.

A day when the community rids itself of the St. Louis Public Library-Barriers that divide it and comes together as one.

A day when people of all races, religions, classes and nations in life put aside their differences and join in a spirit of togetherness.

A day for nations of the world to cease all violent actions, seek nonviolent solutions and demonstrate that peace is not just a dream but a real possibility, if only for one day.

If for only one day, each of us serves as a “drum major for justice and peace,” then we bring to life the inspiring vision of freedom of which Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. dreamed, a tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who awakened in us the best qualities.

City of St. Louis
Official Proclamation
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
Statewide Celebration

Lyda Krewson
Mayor, City of St. Louis

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as born on January 15, 1929; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King embodied the ideals of tolerance, nonviolence, peace, justice and equal opportunity; and

WHEREAS, in 1964, Dr. King won the Nobel Peace Prize for his nonviolent campaigns brought reconciliation and justice; and

WHEREAS, on the 2nd day of December, 1985, then Missouri Governor John Ashcroft created and established the Martin Luther King, Jr. State Celebration Commission; and

WHEREAS, since its establishment, the Martin Luther King, Jr. State Celebration Commission has recommended and fostered appropriate activities for the recognition and celebration of Martin Luther King Day in the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, tonight's celebration and award ceremony will bring together people from all walks of life and is the first of many events that will pay tribute to the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the City of St. Louis, it is my great pleasure to extend thanks and appreciation to the past and present members of the Commission who have worked tirelessly to honor Dr. King and the just cause for which he stood.

Now, therefore, I, Lyda Krewson, Mayor of the City of St. Louis, do hereby proclaim January 12, 2019, as:

“DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. STATE CELEBRATION DAY”
IN THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the City of St. Louis, this 12th day of January, A.D. 2019.

If I can help somebody as I pass along,
If I can cheer somebody with a song,
If I can show somebody he's traveling wrong,
Then my living will not be in vain.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

King Holiday Bell Ringing

In 1986, the Martin Luther King Jr. Federal Holiday Commission began the tradition of ringing the U.S. Liberty Bell on the holiday honoring Dr. King. The Bell-Ringing Ceremony takes place in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the third Monday of January at noon E.S.T.

Simultaneously, similar ceremonies take place on the capitols of each of the 50 states with the governors ringing replica Liberty Bells, which were cast and sent to the states by President Harry Truman.

The Bell-Ringing Ceremony was created to serve as an appropriate opening for events that encourage us to remember, celebrate and act on the King Holiday, such as community service projects, forums on race relations, parades or marches. Since the ceremony began, churches, synagogues, mosques, schools and civic organizations have also participated. For religious or ethnic cultures that have no tradition of bell ringing, the commission has encouraged them to participate in the ceremony with an expression appropriate to their tradition, like the blowing of the shofar or the singing of a song.

A particularly fitting symbol for honoring the work of Dr. King, the Liberty Bell was introduced to a national audience as a symbol for the abolitionist movement. The first reference historians can find to the name "Liberty Bell" is on the cover of an 1837 edition of Liberty, published by the New York Anti-Slavery Society. Previously known only in Philadelphia as the State House Bell, the bell, used as an antislavery symbol, brought it to much greater prominence.

DR. KING'S SIX PRINCIPLES OF NONVIOLENCE

“Often the question has arisen concerning my own intellectual pilgrimage to nonviolence. In order to get at this question it is necessary to go back to my early teens in Atlanta. I had grown up abhorring not only segregation, but also the oppressive and barbarous acts that grew out of it.”

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

- Principle 1: Nonviolence is not passive, but requires courage.
- Principle 2: Nonviolence seeks reconciliation, not defeat of an adversary.
- Principle 3: Nonviolent action is directed at eliminating evil, not destroying an evil-doer.
- Principle 4: A willingness to accept suffering for the cause, if necessary, but never to inflict it.
- Principle 5: A rejection of hatred, animosity or violence of the spirit, as well as refusal to commit physical violence.
- Principle 6: Faith that justice will prevail.

DR. KING'S SIX STEPS OF NONVIOLENCE

1. Information gathering and research to get the facts straight.
2. Education of adversaries and the public about the facts of the dispute.
3. Personal commitment to nonviolent attitudes and action.
4. Negotiation with an adversary in a spirit of goodwill to correct injustice.
5. Non-violent direct action, such as marches, boycotts, mass demonstrations, picketing, sit-ins, etc., to help persuade or compel adversary to work toward dispute-resolution.
6. Reconciliation of adversaries in a win-win outcome to establish a sense of community.

Fundamental tenets of Dr. King's philosophy of nonviolence described in his first book, Stride Toward Freedom.

The Honorable Maxine Waters
United States House of Representatives
43rd Congressional District, California

Congresswoman Maxine Waters is considered by many to be one of the most powerful women in American politics today. She has gained a reputation as a fearless and outspoken advocate for women, children, people of color and the poor. Elected in November 2016 to her fourteenth term in the U.S. House of Representatives, Congresswoman Waters represents the 43rd Congressional District of California, and serves as the Ranking Member of the House Committee on Financial Services. She is also a member of the Congressional Progressive Caucus, and member and past chair of the Congressional Black Caucus. Throughout her 37 years of public service, Maxine Waters has been on the cutting edge, tackling difficult and often controversial issues – and an advocate for international peace, justice, and human rights.

She is lauded by African American entrepreneurs for her work to expand contracting and procurement opportunities and to strengthen businesses. Long active in the women's movement, Rep. Waters has given encouragement and financial support to women seeking public office. Many young people, including those in the hip-hop music community, praise her for her support and understanding of young people and their efforts at self-expression.

Maxine Waters was born in St. Louis, Missouri, the fifth of 13 children reared by a single mother. She began working at age 13 in factories and segregated restaurants. After moving to Los Angeles, she worked in garment factories and at the telephone company. She attended California State University at Los Angeles, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. She began her career in public service as a teacher and a volunteer coordinator in the Head Start program. She is married to Sidney Williams, the former U.S. Ambassador to the Commonwealth of the Bahamas. She is the mother of two adult children, Edward and Karen, and has two grandchildren.

Terry M. Fischer Theatre
3400 Pershall Road
Florissant, MO

St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley and North County Churches Uniting for Racial Harmony and Justice will host its annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Tuesday, Jan. 22. The celebration’s theme is “Standing for Truth, Knowledge and Unconditional Love.” Shawntelle Fisher, STLCC-Florissant Valley alumna and founder/CEO of The SoulFisher Ministries - which aims to spread hope and empower youth and convicted felons to be positive, productive, and socially responsible members in the community - will serve as the keynote speaker. The reception is from 5-6 p.m. on Florissant Valley’s campus in the Terry M. Fischer Theatre, located at 3400 Pershall Road. The program follows from 6-7 p.m.

Participants will have an opportunity to sign a gigantic birthday card for Dr. King, which measures 60" x 120," and see the talents of North County youth on display as current and former STLCC-Florissant Valley students lead the celebratory program. The celebration’s student speaker is Marc Wallace; student emcee is Tia Wilks; and vocalist is Daniel Allyn. Participants will also hear winning speeches from NCCU’s Oratorical Contest and music from local choirs. In addition to being inspired by rousing speakers and choir performances, guests will learn more about why the Ritenour School District is being honored with the 2019 Dr. Rance Thomas Excellence in Community Partnership Award.

“Ritenour School District was chosen because of its commitment to its entire community, its special programs focused on serving often underrepresented individuals and its work in creating a strong partnership with our campus,” said Dr. Elizabeth Gassel Perkins, campus provost. This free event is open to the public, and seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Corporation for National Community Service

2019 MLK Day of Service

For the last 24 years, the Corporation for National and Community Service has promoted service to honor Dr. King on the federal holiday designated for him. Whether you have previously participated in or led activities for this day of service or this is your first time planning an event, it is pertinent to remember his words, “Life’s most persistent and urgent question is: What are you doing for others?”

We hope you will join CNCS and thousands of organizations across the country to honor Dr. King through service on the holiday, during the week leading up to the holiday, or sign up to volunteer throughout the year in his memory. Activities to honor Dr. King often occur throughout the week (Jan. 15 – 21).

If you are still thinking about how to honor Dr. King’s legacy, please visit MLKDay.gov and check out our project ideas. There are many ideas listed that you could do, including bring people together to train them to volunteer with your organization or initiative throughout the year.

You will also find new social media graphics, downloadable posters, and other resources to support engaging your community in service.

If you have already planned how you will honor Dr. King, please take a moment to register your service project. The process is very simple this year: choose “Start a project” to register a one-time event. Even if your project is not accepting additional volunteers, registering your project will let CNCS, local media or community members that may want to support your efforts know about them. If you are not accepting additional volunteers, please leave the volunteers needed box blank, or enter the number one.

If you have any questions about King Day, please email: MLKDay@cns.gov.

The time is always right, to do what is right.

If any of you are around when I have to meet my day, I don't want a long funeral. And if you get somebody to deliver the eulogy, tell him not to talk too long. And every now and then I wonder what I want him to say. Tell him not to mention that I have a Nobel Peace Prize. That isn't so important. Tell him not to mention that I have three or four hundred other awards – that's not important. Tell him not to mention where I went to school.

I'd like somebody to mention that day that Martin Luther King Jr. tried to give his life serving others. I'd like for somebody to say that day that Martin Luther King Jr. tried to love somebody. I want you to say that I tried to be right on the war question. I want you to be able to say that day that I did try to feed the hungry. I want you to say that day that I did try in my life to clothe those who were naked. I want you to say on that day that I did try in my life to visit those who were in prison. And I want you to say that I tried to love and serve humanity.....
