Bachelor of Science in Health Care Management

Overview: The mission of the Health Care Management program is to provide quality education to students planning to assume an entry or mid-level management position in a variety of health care settings in both the national and international arena. Career opportunities include hospitals, pharmaceutical and medical equipment corporations, managed care organizations, physician group practices, home care centers, long-term care facilities, public health institutions, hospices, health insurance firms, ambulatory care clinics, or consulting companies. The program combines a professional curriculum with other academic disciplines, such as management, marketing, information systems, economics, accounting, and finance.

Curriculum: The HCM program is designed to prepare students to become managers in any one of a number of different types of health care environments, both public and private, and international. The program offers a number of courses both in class and online in various aspects of health care management, including health care organizations, health care law and ethics, health care planning and marketing, international health care management, and financial management of health care institutions. HCM seniors also intern at a local health care institution. HCM graduates are prepared to sign on to entry-level management positions in health care institutions and or continue their studies in graduate school.
